

REFUGE, RIGHTS, AND COMMUNITY: A LEARNING SERIES ON IMMIGRATION

Event Lineup

1. Refuge

Sunday, September 7 | 3-5 PM | CSU

A deep dive into the refugee journey—past, present, and personal. This session will provide historical context on global and U.S. refugee programs, explore the current realities facing refugees in Colorado, and share powerful first-hand stories that bring the experience to life.

2. Rights

Sunday, October 26 | 3-5 PM | CSU

Unpack the realities of today's immigration policies and how they are affecting individuals, families, and communities. Hear from a broad panel of Colorado-based legal experts.

3. Community

Sunday, November 9 | 3-6 PM | CSU

A critical conversation about the rise of white supremacist movements, their impact on refugee and immigrant safety, and how communities can resist hate. Includes film screening to the documentary, Refuge.

Join us at for an inspiring and eye-opening panel series exploring the refugee experience, immigration law, and the impacts of white supremacy in our communities.

Hear directly from experts, advocates, and refugees as we build understanding, foster allyship, connect with local organizations, and take action together.

LOCATION: COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
(EXACT ROOM DETAILS PROVIDED AFTER REGISTRATION)

Free Event
Registration Required

<https://bit.ly/Refuge-Rights-Community>

